Thank you for downloading this kit. It's built to help kids understand one powerful truth: Jesus is with me in the storm. This story isn't just about weather —it's about fear, trust, and discovering who Jesus is.

In Mark 4, the disciples are caught in a real storm. They're scared. The waves are crashing. But Jesus is already in the boat with them. Jesus speaks, and the wind and waves obey Him. That's the truth we want children to carry home: when I am afraid, I can trust Jesus.

Jesus Calms the Storm · Mark 4:35–41

Kid-friendly truth

"Jesus is with me in the storm."

Main question → answer

"Who can I trust when I am afraid?" → I can trust Jesus.

Memory verse

"Even the wind and the waves obey him!" —Mark 4:41

Gospel connection

Jesus is more than a helper in scary moments — He is the Son of God. The wind and waves obey Him because He is Lord over creation. He came to rescue us from sin and give us peace stronger than fear.

Repeated line

"Jesus was already in the boat."

Bestleader line

"Sometimes Jesus calms the storm around us. Sometimes He gives us peace inside the storm. Either way, Jesus is with us."

Emotional hook

Every child knows what it feels like to be afraid —of storms, the dark, being alone, school, sickness, family problems, bad dreams, new situations. This story helps kids name fear without shame and remember that Jesus is near.

Visual symbols

Boat · waves · wind · storm clouds · calm water · Jesus in the boat · peace card · anchor · paper boat

OPENING & BIBLE STORY · READ ALOUD

Opening

Today we're learning about a time Jesus and His friends were in a boat. A big storm came. The disciples were afraid—but Jesus was with them. First, look at our Storm Meter. Point to how stormy you feel today. Maybe calm. Maybe worried. Maybe a big storm inside. It's okay to feel afraid. Everyone say: "Jesus is with me in the storm."

Biblestory

One evening, Jesus told His disciples to go across the lake. They got into a boat. Then the wind began to blow. The waves crashed against the boat. The storm grew stronger and stronger. The disciples were afraid—but Jesus was in the boat with them, sleeping. They woke Him: "Teacher, don't you care if we drown?" Jesus stood up. He spoke to the wind and the waves: "Peace, be still." The wind stopped. The waves became calm. The disciples were amazed and asked, "Who is this? Even the wind and the waves obey Him!"

Teaching point 1—Fear is real

The disciples were afraid, and they didn't pretend they were fine—they cried out to Jesus. We can talk to Jesus when we're afraid too.

Teaching point 2—Jesus was with them

Jesus was already in the boat. Not far away. Not too busy. Not surprised by the storm. When we feel afraid, Jesus is with us too.

TEACHING, RESPONSE

Teaching point 3—Jesus has power

Jesus spoke, and the wind and waves obeyed Him. The disciples saw that He isn't just a teacher — Jesus is Lord.

Teaching point 4—I can trust Him

Sometimes Jesus calms the storm around us. Sometimes He gives peace inside the storm. Either way, Jesus is with us.

Responsemoment

Ask: "What is something that can make kids feel afraid?" Let them answer if they want. Then say: "When our hearts feel stormy, we can pray." Lead the prayer: "Jesus, thank You for being with me. When I feel afraid, help me remember You are near. Help me trust You. Amen."

Closing line

"When I am afraid, I can trust Jesus."

Beautiful and powerful statement of faith. It echoes the well-known words of King David in Psalm 56:3, which says, "When I am afraid, I put my trust in you."
